

Academic Scholars

Students automatically qualify for the Academic Scholars Program by being named a Presidential Scholar by the U.S. Department of Education, a National Merit Scholar or National Merit Finalist, or by scoring in the 99th percentile of the American College Testing Program. In addition to automatic qualifiers, five additional academic scholars are selected each year. The recipients of these five scholarships must meet at least two of the following requirements: 1) have a composite ACT score of 30 or higher, 2) 3.8 or higher high school GPA, 3) be ranked in the top 4% of their senior class. Applications are available in the Office of Scholarships, the Office of Student Financial Services, and all branch campus offices.
