

NORTHEASTERN STATE UNIVERSITY
DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL SCIENCES

FUTURE STUDENTS

CURRENT STUDENTS

ALUMNI

ATHLETICS

GIVING TO NSU

SOCIAL SCIENCES HOME

UNDERGRAD MAJORS ▾

American Indian Studies

Geography

History

Political Science

Public Administration

Social Studies Education

Sociology

GRADUATE PROGRAM

MINORS ▾

CONTACT US

American Indian Studies

The Bachelor of Arts in American Indian Studies is designed for all persons interested in the cultural heritage and history of American Indian people. The major is a multi-disciplinary, liberal arts program with required courses in Anthropology, History, Literature, and Political Science. Electives can be chosen from a broad choice of subjects which focus on Native Americans and their experiences as well as their influences within society.

More details about the American Indian Studies program:

- Course Sequence (pdf)
- Program Overview (pdf)

For more information about the American Indian Studies program please write or call the:

Coordinator of American Indian Studies
Department of Social Sciences
Northeastern State University
609 N. Grand Avenue
Tahlequah, OK 74464
Telephone: (918) 444-3500

