

NORTHEASTERN STATE UNIVERSITY
CENTER FOR STUDY OF LITERACY

LITERACY HOMECLEARINGHOUSE ▼CONTACT US

Center for Study of Literacy

Welcome to the Northeastern State University's Center for Study of Literacy

The Northeastern State University Center for Study of Literacy lends a hand to those seeking a better life. Equipped with multi-level learning software, the Center is able to meet a wide range of study needs. We offer instructional reading, writing, math, science and social studies at no cost to the student and our walk-in availability allows learners to work at their own pace.

Literacy Center Services

- Gain basic literacy
- Improve basic literacy
- Improve writing skills
- Improve math and algebra skills
- Prepare for the GED
- Pass the pre-professional tests
- Learn for fun

Located in the John Vaughan Library, Room 118. Open Monday through Friday, 8:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. For more information call (918) 444-3313, toll free at 1-800-879-0987, or email litcntr@nsuok.edu.

...the lack of a written language blocks the road to progress. Without a written language, the thoughts of men tend to die.

-George Guess (Sequoyah)