

George Wickliffe

Chief ,
United Keetoowah Band of Cherokee Indians

About: Chief George Wickliffe
United Keetoowah Band of Cherokee Indians in Oklahoma

Chief George Wickliffe has 45 years of tribal experience, including 20 years experience in UKB tribal administration. He is serving his second term as Chief of the Keetoowah Cherokees and he is a fluent Cherokee speaker.

Mr. Wickliffe's educational background includes Kenwood Elementary School, Sequoyah Indian Vocational School, HSD, 1957 an Associate Degree from Oklahoma Military Academy Junior College, a Bachelor of Science in Education from Northeastern Oklahoma State University, a Master of Science in Secondary School Administration Advanced School Administration Study from the University of Tulsa, and School Business Finance from Pittsburgh State University.

His work experience includes Foyil Public Schools, High School Principal and Coach 1967-1970; White Oak Public Schools, High School Boys Coach, Social Studies (Historian), and Driver Education, 1970-1973; Catoosa Public Schools, Middle School Principal, 1973-1978; White Oak Public Schools, Superintendent, 1977-1999; Northeastern State University [NSU] Cherokee Language Instructor; and Rogers State University [RSU], Cherokee Language Instructor.

Other professional activities include: a Member of Indian Advisory Committee, Johnson O'Malley Parent Advisory Committee, Chapter 1 & 2 Parent Advisory Committee and White Oak Booster Club, Director of Federal Programs, White Oak Public Schools, Writer of all Federal and State grants, White Oak Public Schools

