Mayor's Office

Office of Mayor John Tyler Hammons

City of Muskogee
 Municipal Building - Muskogee OK 74401
 (918) 684-6201

John Tyler Hammons assumed office as the City of Muskogee's 47th mayor on May 19, 2008, after winning election with over 69 percent of the vote, the highest percentage in Muskogee history. Elected at age 19, Hammons is currently America's youngest mayor and among the youngest mayors in American history.

The voters of Muskogee reelected Mayor Hammons to a second term on April 6, 2010, after receiving 52% of the vote in a four way race.

Mayor Hammons was born in Muskogee, Oklahoma, on September 4, 1988. The Mayor is a fourth generation Oklahoman and is a member of the Cherokee Nation. A lifelong Muskogee resident, he has attended Muskogee Public School for his entire public education, including Creek Elementary, Muskogee 7th and 8th Grade Center, and Muskogee High School. Mayor Hammons is a member of the MHS Graduating Class of 2007. Mayor Hammons attended the University of Oklahoma from 2007-2008. Following his election, he transferred to Northeastern State University in Tahlequah, Oklahoma, in the fall of 2008. In the spring of 2010, the Mayor transferred to the University of Oklahoma-Tulsa. After graduation, the Mayor plans to return to the University of Oklahoma-Norman to pursue a joint Masters of Business Administration-Law degree.

Mayor Hammons is the son of Marshall and Kathy Hammons of Muskogee and is the older brother of Wes Hammons. He is also a member of Southeast Baptist Church of Muskogee.

In addition to his service on the City Council, Mayor Hammons serves on
