NSU Hosts Teachers' Dialog for Support: No Teacher Left Behind Conference

TAHLEQUAH – Northeastern State University and the Association for Childhood Education International, invite area educators to the Teachers' Dialog for Support: No Teacher Left Behind Conference to be held October 4 on the NSU-Muskogee campus. The conference will focus on networking among educators. Topics include standardize testing, reader's workshops, integrating the curriculum, and how to deal with inclusions. Conference break-out sessions will target writer's workshops, literature circles, and No Child Left Behind. Staff development certificates will be available for all participants.

Dorothy Watson, professor emeriti of Curriculum & Instruction at the University of Missouri-Columbia, will be the keynote speaker for the event. Watson was the 2002 National Council of Teachers of English Recipient of the Outstanding Educator in the English Language Arts Award.

Conference registration on or before September 27 is $15 per educator and $10 per student. On-site registration will be $18 per educator and $13 per student. Registration fee includes lunch. For more information or to register, please contact Dr. Debbie Smith at 918-456-5511, ext. 3749.
