

NORTHEASTERN STATE UNIVERSITY
CENTER FOR TRIBAL STUDIES

FUTURE STUDENTS

CURRENT STUDENTS

ALUMNI

ATHLETICS

GIVING TO NSU

TRIBAL STUDIES HOME

ABOUT US

NEWS

UPCOMING EVENTS

SILENT AUCTION

STUDENT SERVICES ▼

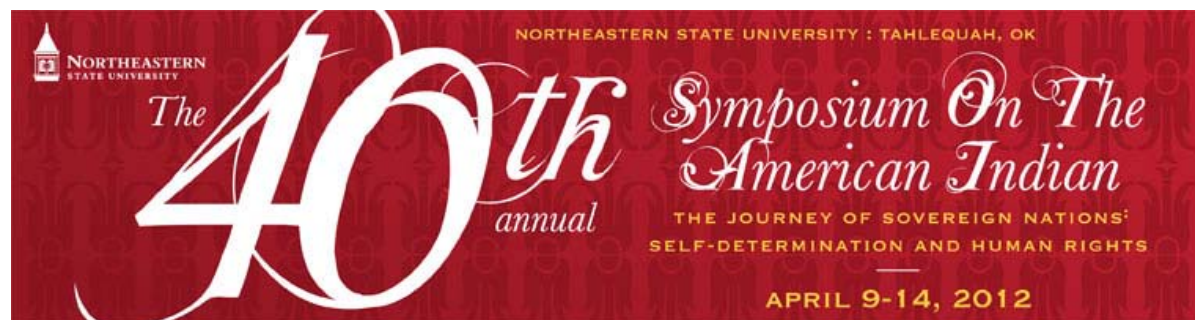

SCHOLARSHIPS ▼

ORGANIZATIONS

NSU SYMPOSIUM ▼

NSU POWWOW

CONTACT US

Center for Tribal Studies

Since its inception in 1990, the Center for Tribal Studies has become one of the central resources on campus for supporting academic effectiveness, enhancing the quality of student experiences, initiating scholarly activities, bridging communication between tribal nations and the University, and enriching the cultural heritage of the Northeastern State University community. The Center for Tribal Studies welcomes you to visit our offices at the historic Bacone House, located at 320 Academy Street in Tahlequah, Oklahoma.

The 39th Annual Symposium on the American Indian, Hands Across Nations: Smart Legacies - Strong Spirits, is scheduled for April 11-16, 2011.

Phone, Fax, & E-mail

Phone: 918-444-4350

Fax: 918-458-2073

E-mail: tribalstudies@nsuok.edu

NORTHEASTERN STATE UNIVERSITY
CENTER FOR TRIBAL STUDIES

FUTURE STUDENTS

CURRENT STUDENTS

ALUMNI

ATHLETICS

GIVING TO NSU

TRIBAL STUDIES HOME

ABOUT US

NEWS

UPCOMING EVENTS

SILENT AUCTION

STUDENT SERVICES ▼

SCHOLARSHIPS ▼

ORGANIZATIONS

NSU SYMPOSIUM ▼

Symposium Agenda

Vendor Info

NSU POWWOW

CONTACT US

40th Annual Symposium on the American Indian "The Journey of Sovereign Nations: Self-Determination and Human Rights"

April 9-14, 2012

Northeastern State University
 University Center, Tahlequah, OK

The theme for the 40th Annual Symposium on the American Indian, "The Journey of Sovereign Nations: Self-determination and Human Rights", will reflect back on the past four decades of development and change for American Indian tribes. From the 1970s emphasis on self-determination, revitalization of tribal governments, and Indian activism, to the more recent Cobell trust funds settlement and the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, American Indians have been on the move as advocates for justice, human rights, and reparation. The journey continues with an eye on the well-being of future generations.

Hosted By:

NSU Center for Tribal Studies

Registration is FREE for the Symposium

VENDOR INFO

Vendor Booths Available

Institutional/Information Display Booth

These booths are provided at no cost for institutions and organizations.

You will be provided one 6' table (no cover), two chairs, and electrical outlets are available upon request in advance.

Booth location is assigned in the order application form is received. Vendors must abide by all policies set forth at NSU.

Please download and complete the form and return to the Center for Tribal Studies by mail or fax.

(Download Institutional/Information booth form)

Traditional Arts and Crafts Booth

You will be provided one 6' table (no cover), two chairs, and electrical outlets are available upon request in advance.

Booth location is assigned in the order application form is received. Vendors must abide by all policies set forth at NSU.

Please download and complete the form and return to the Center for Tribal Studies by mail or fax.

Cost:

One table at $50

Two tables at $100

Electrical outlets $10

Cost is the same for one or all three days.

(Download Arts and Crafts Booth form)

Mailing Address:

Center for Tribal Studies
 600 North Grand Avenue

Tahlequah, OK 74464

Fax: 918.458.2073

---

NSU is a tobacco-free campus

Follow us on Facebook

