Union owns football

Northeastern Oklahoma still owns Class 6A football. And, Union

High School is still the neighborhood bully. The Redskins, needing another classic finish against an old neighboring rival, returned a fumble 30 yards for a touchdown with under four minutes to go in a wild 23-22 victory over Broken Arrow on Thursday night at Boone Pickens Stadium.

A little Redskins magic happened.

Union (13-1) won its seventh state football title in 10 years and eighth overall.

"I'm super stoked," said Union senior linebacker Blace Walser, who had a game-high 15 tackles. "This is the definitely the best one (title) so far." see recap inside

Union wins the 6A State Championship for the fourth year in a row, beating a great Broken Arrow team in a back-and-forth game 23-22. See recap inside.

☰ 10th, 11th graders invited to parent night Dec. 5

Attention sophomore and junior families: Please join us at either Union High School in the North Commons or at the Roy Clark Elementary Gymnasium, 3656 S. 103rd E. Ave., on Monday, December 5 at 6 p.m. Administrators and counselors will provide information about next year's enrollment, graduation, and upcoming opportunities at both locations. We will discuss college readiness, EOI testing and other helpful resources as you plan for next year. Spanish translators will be available to assist families at this event.

☰ Fund set up for students taking ACTs

A fund to help students pay for ACT testing, test preparation class fees, college application fees, etc., has been established through the Union Schools Education Foundation. During the recent annual dinner and banquet hosted by the Foundation on November 12, donors contributed $4,920 to the fund set up by Gary and Sarah McBryde. Sarah McBryde is the director of marketing and the UMAC for Union Public Schools. See inside
